After a great visit to Leeds by 20 citizens from Dortmund, with many wonderful experiences and lasting memories, we would now like to invite all interested citizens of Leeds to a return visit to Dortmund. Let the citizens of Dortmund show you their home town and experience the diverse culture and green nature of Dortmund!

Programme schedule:

1st day, Friday, 22 May 2026

Arrival and check-in at the Hotel Esplanade**** by 2.00pm. 2.30 p.m. Welcome by Geoff Tranter. Followed by a guided tour of Dortmund city centre and official welcome to Dortmund at the Town Hall. In the evening, tour of the traditional Hövels Brewery, followed by dinner together in the brewery's restaurant.

2nd day, Saturday, 23 May 2026

Breakfast in the hotel. In the morning, travel by underground to Phoenix Lake for a guided tour – the lake is a prime example of structural change in Dortmund and is now a recreational area for the city's residents. Then continue on to visit Hohensyburg Castle. In the afternoon, return to the city centre and meet-up with the German-British Society in the Auslandsgesellschaft building. Individual dinner arrangements.

3rd day, Sunday, 24 May 2026

Breakfast in the hotel. In the morning, visit to the Zollern colliery – it is one of the most beautiful examples of Dortmund's industrial past. In the afternoon, visit to Westfalenpark – a 70-hectare, multi-purpose park in the heart of Dortmund – and visit to the Park Academy. Return to the city centre in the evening and individual dinner arrangements.

4th day, Monday, 25 May 2026 (Spring Bank Holiday)

Breakfast in the hotel. In the morning, travel by underground to Dortmund Harbour with a tour of the impressive industrial complex that is the lifeblood of the city. Afterwards, return to the city centre, farewell and departure as individually arranged.

Programme subject to change!

In cooperation with the German-British Society in the Auslandsgesellschaft Dortmund.

Requirements for entry into Germany: British citizens need a valid passport to enter Germany.
